UP We have a few copies of "Marshall's New elling Book, and Elementary Principles of the aglish Language," to an examination of which, at our bookstore, we invite all teachers of com-mon schools in this vicinity. Further notice, and recommendations hereafter.

17 The Wisconsin Domocrat of the 13th Oct., published at Green Bay, concludes its editorial department for the week with the following humorous summary—which we adopt as partly suitable to our own present condition, and fitted to the meridian of almost any place, without material seriation.

ted to the meridian of almost any place, without material veristion.

17 News this week is intolerably scarce, and the hope of shortly receiving a fresh supply, is but faint. We have been anxiously looking for a steamboat, but begin to despair of the arrival of any. Our paper is almost filled with the sentimental and pathetic—which however acceptable to those who leve light reading, will be cast aside by the business man, the speculator and the politician, as "stale, flat, and unprofitable."—We can't help it; and if we fail in pleasing any hody else, we hope the ladies will be pleased, as they can generally appreciate the merits of poesy, and love to cull the flowers of literature. But even our bards have deserted us in this trying time—the mails and the muses appear to have conspired against us. "There are no marriages in this paper," says a fair one, after carefully scanning each column,—"what poor things these western papers are." Why don't some body get charried; if we are not favored with some original ones before long, for the especial benefit of our fair readers we shall publish a second edition of those which have been perpetrated, or the marriages of those who eaght to be married.—We wate preparing a pretty considerable essay upon the death of Louis Phillippe—the supposed state of France, and had just concluded, as we thought, a most brilliant paragraph upon the probable effects of the hostile movements on the part of Austria and Russia, when the words "All a Hoax," in the Galena Advertiser, struck our astonished vision—the pen dropped "from our hand, & we almost wished that Louis Phillip were defunct, rather than that the world should be deprived of our effusion. We shall preserve it, however, until Louis is "kilt," which will probably be in the course of time. An interesting occurrence took place some where in Europe, which we shall endeavor to relate. As the Frincess of — was crossing the river of —, the boat in which she was riding unfortunately upset. A young South Carolinian, who was in the vicin

FAIR: A FAIR:—In accordance with a custom that has long prevailed in England, the citizens of St. Joseph county are invited to a FAIR at White Pigeon, on the 16th of November next. It may be proper to state that the design of a Fair is to facilitate trade of all kinds. Those who attend bring stock or any thing else they have to sell or exchange for other property; or, if they bring nothing they may wish to purchase of those who do bring something. It will be seen at once that it brings together, at one place, such commodities as are for sale in the country, as well as all the buyers and England, the citizens of St. Joseph county are invited to a FAIR at White Pigeon, on the 16th of November next. on Water street, Constantine, where he will be happy to receive, and attend to all orders for work in his line of business.

Having made arrangements to receive the New-York and Paris FASHIONS, regularly, as soon as published, and from long experience in his business, he flatters himself that he will be able to give entire satisfication to those who may favor him with their work.

He intends building a shop soon, for the purpose of enlarging his business, and keeping on hand a general assorment of READY MADE CLOTHING. From the more than liberal patronage which he has heretofore received from the citizens of Constantine, and adjacent country, and the rapid growth of this village, he feels confident in the belief, that any additions which he may make to his business, will be amply rewarded by the approbation and encouragement of the public.

CUTTING will be done in the latest style.

and warranted to fit, if properly made up.

In conclusion, he would be permitted to express his thanks for past favors, and solicit a continuanc of public patronage.

The virtues of this valuable medicine cannot

The virtues of this valuable medicine cannot be too extensively known, as there is scarcely an individual who would not be benefitted by its use. The uniform testimony of medical men in its favor, and the great success which has attended its introduction, both in hospitals and private practice, is a convincing proof of its value, and of its superiority over other preparations of the Sarsaparilla.

Mr. C. C. Bristol.—Dear Sir: Please send me four dozen bottles Bailey's Compound Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla.

I cannot but express my highest sense of gratification in the result this excellent preparation has had in the cure of Cutaneous Diseases. In every case which has come under my practice, it has had the most complete success. Not one-even the most obstinate and long standing—but has received a permanent cure from this very excellent compound. In a section of country like this, where the principal diseases arise from a vitiated state of the blood, I think the introduction of your preparation will be of the most eminent service.

I consider it the neatest preparation of sarsa-parilla I have ever met with, and as such I un-hesitatingly give it my earnest reccommendation.

Truly yours, &c. Truly yours, &c.
